

Jan Vaissière

Engineering Student at Mines Saint-Étienne · Applied Economics at Paris Dauphine–PSL · Procurement
Apprentice at ArianeGroup
Strategy · Finance · Industry

janvaissiere.pro@gmail.com · +33 7 76 75 53 66 · linkedin.com/in/jan-vaissière · janvaissiere.com

EDUCATION

|                                                                                                                                                        |           |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Mines Saint-Étienne — Master of Engineering, Industrial Engineering                                                                             | 2025–2028 |
| Ranked 1st of 169, GPA 4.33/4.33, top of class (Semester 1) · Industrial strategy, supply chain, complex project management and digital transformation |           |
| Paris Dauphine–PSL University — Bachelor’s Degree in Applied Economics, Year 3                                                                  | 2026–2027 |
| Dual degree pursued in parallel with the engineering program                                                                                           |           |
| Conservatoire National des Arts et Métiers (CNAM) — Bachelor’s Degree in Engineering Science                                                    | 2023–2026 |
| Top of class · GPA 4.0/4.0 · Highly ranked admissible candidate at Mines Saint-Étienne and Arts et Métiers                                             |           |
| Collège des Hautes Études de Lyon en Sciences (CHEL[s]) — Joint Program                                                                         | 2025–2026 |
| Interdisciplinary program in science, economics, law and the humanities, delivered with ENS de Lyon and Sciences Po Lyon                               |           |

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| ArianeGroup — Procurement Programme Management Apprentice, Ariane 6 Program                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Les Mureaux · Oct. 2025–Present |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Supports the transformation of procurement performance management through data analytics, artificial intelligence and risk management.</li><li>Analyzes deviations, identifies root causes and coordinates action plans with program teams and strategic suppliers.</li><li>Analyzes KPIs and consolidates reporting for the European Space Agency.</li></ul> |                                 |
| Eurofiber — Intern, Deputy Head of Network Operations                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Toulouse · Apr.–Jun 2025        |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Formulates improvement recommendations supported by impact and risk analysis.</li><li>Models operational processes using BPMN notation.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                 |
| Numeum — Innovation Project Manager / Consultant                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Toulouse · May–Jul 2024         |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Structures digital transformation projects, coordinates stakeholders and delivers recommendations.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                 |
| J.V. Consulting &amp; Services — Founder                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Nov. 2024–Present               |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Designs and deploys bespoke digital solutions and management tools for small businesses, SMEs and organizations.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                 |
| France Positive — Analyst, Industrial and Energy Performance Committee                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Nov. 2024–Present               |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Co-drafts public policy proposals on industrial performance, energy and reindustrialization.</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                 |

GOVERNANCE & PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT

|                                                                                                                               |                     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------|
| Institut Mines-Télécom — Board Member                                                                                  | Dec. 2025–Present   |
| Contributes to the group's strategic, academic and industrial direction.                                                      |                     |
| Villefranche-de-Rouergue — Municipal and Intermunicipal Councillor                                                     | Mar. 2026–Present   |
| Reviews policy files and participates in deliberations spanning territorial issues, economic constraints and public services. |                     |
| Prime Minister’s Office — National Advisor, National Council for Refoundation – Youth                                  | May 2023–May 2024   |
| Contributes to national policy reflection and collective work, engaging diverse stakeholders on public issues.                |                     |
| Ministry of National Education — National Representative, National Council for High School Life                        | Oct. 2022–Dec. 2023 |
| Represents students nationally, engages institutional stakeholders and formulates proposals serving collective interests.     |                     |

SKILLS

Quantitative analysis & problem-solving · Strategic procurement · Supplier management · Procurement & supply chain performance · Cross-functional coordination · Complex project management · Risk analysis · Synthesis and communication of recommendations · Digital transformation & AI

LANGUAGES

French: Native
English: B2+, TOEIC 855/990
Spanish: B1
Occitan: Fluent

DISTINCTIONS

GENIUS Program — École Polytechnique · Jury Commendation, National Mathematics Olympiad · Concours Général in Mathematics · Winner, Public Speaking Competition hosted with the Ordre des Palmes Académiques